

Summer is right around the corner! Check out the activities we love most:

1. The Rocky Mountain Region of USA Volleyball has posted camps, clinics and beach for the Spring and Summer months and it's all in one chart for your convenience. Visit their website at www.rmrvolleyball.org mid May. Click on Juniors then scroll down to Summer Camps. Check back as new camps are added regularly.
2. Flatirons Volleyball Club is running camps for girls between 9 and 14. Dates are May 31 – June 9 at Eldorado K8 School from 3:30-6:00 pm. Registration is open and filling fast. Enrollment is limited; register now. Coach Kaylie will teach a libero/passing clinic on June 4 and 5. Coach Kaylie and Coach Kerrilyn are heading up a two day hitters and setters clinic on June 11 and 12. Details are posted on our website. Sign up by clicking on "Register For Programs" in the Featured Events column on our home page: www.flatironsvbc.org. Also check "News" and the "Calendar" sections.
3. As a general rule, club volleyball camps run in June while college camps run in July. Check out:
Air Force Academy
Colorado State University
DU Volleyball Camps
Metro State
Regis University
U of Colorado Boulder
U of Northern Colorado

4. If you're a high school player (including incoming Freshmen), check with your high school coach about the open gym schedule at your school. Do this right away; if you wait till school is out, you may have trouble reaching them.
5. Flatirons' Beach Program is off and running under the direction of Coach Kaylie. RMR Beach doubles tournaments begin in May. Colorado Volleyball (not to be confused with U. of Colorado) host doubles tournaments for Juniors; the schedule is posted at www.coloradovolleyball.com Doubles are a great means for improving skills and having lots of fun at the same time! Get a partner and good sunscreen.
6. The Rocky Mountain Region www.rmrvolleyball.org is also hosting Junior doubles tournaments which start May 21st (registration deadline is May 16). Click on "Beach Series" at the top of the home page. You'll also find a listing of additional summer tournaments.
7. Coming up on Fathers Day weekend in June is the annual Vail King of the Mountain Juniors Tournament. This tournament is loads of fun. To register, visit www.kingofthemountainvolleyball.com And there is a super fun Father/Daughter division of the tournament.
8. The Gold Crown Volleyball Camps for elementary, middle school and high school players. More information is posted at www.goldcrownfoundation.com Click on "Volleyball" at the top of the home page.
9. Alexander Dawson School runs two weeks of volleyball camps in June and July. More information click here.
10. The Colorado Volleyball Connection hosts summer leagues and tournaments. They're based in Lakewood. Website: www.coloradovolleyballconnection.com

For drop in outdoor volleyball, not to mention a tremendous site to see, visit Washington Park (Virginia Ave. and Downing St.) on Wednesdays at 6:00 pm. Cost: $4 to play.

And don't forget Sports Oasis in Broomfield . . . they have two outdoor courts and offer doubles, drop in and league play. Details: www.sportsoasis.com

AVP has announced their summer schedule for professional beach volleyball. Sites include Seattle, Chicago, Cincinnati, NYC, Huntington Beach and Manhattan Beach. Watch your TV listings as the live finals are usually televised on NBC on Sundays. www.avp.com

Gold Crown Volleyball League begins mid August for 5th/6th, 7th and 8th graders. Flatirons is happy to be hosting the Monarch teams. Email MonarchGCVB@gmail.com to request information.

As you can see, there's plenty of volleyball for all levels ~ have a great time!